Praise

Call to Worship (everyone together)

Clap your hands, all peoples! Shout to God with loud songs of joy! For the LORD, the Most High, is to be feared, a great King over all the earth. Sing praises to God, sing praises! Sing praises to our King, sing praises! For God is the King of all the earth; sing praises with a psalm!

“Holy, Holy, Holy!” (read or sing these words together)

Please see the hymn text on page three.

Hearing and Learning God’s Word

Scripture Reading: Luke 22.7-24 (one person read the Scripture aloud)

Questions for Discussion (may be answered in one worship time or spread over several times)

1. What is the Lord’s Supper?
2. What have you discovered new this morning about the Lord’s Supper, and why is it significant?
3. Why did Jesus earnestly desire to eat the Passover meal with His disciples?
4. It was the host’s responsibility to interpret the foods for his guests. How did Jesus forever change the meaning of the “bread” and the “cup”?

Questions for older children

1. Why are meals such an important theme in the gospel story of redemption?
2. Jesus said, “I have earnestly desired to eat this Passover with you....” Why is His expression of desire so important for our understanding of the gospel?
3. How should the narrative of the Last Supper help us prepare our hearts for when we partake of the Lord’s Supper?

Scripture Memory for March: (memorize this passage of Scripture this month)

Acts 4.32-33

Now the full number of those who believed were of one heart and soul, and no one said that any of the things that belonged to him was his own, but they had everything in common. And with great power the apostles were giving their testimony to the resurrection of the Lord Jesus, and great grace was upon them all.

Prayer

Prayer (saying together)

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be Thy name; Thy kingdom come; Thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread and forgive us our debts as we forgive our debtors. And lead us not into temptation; but deliver us from evil; for Thine is the kingdom, and the power and the glory forever. Amen.
